

Press Release

Hamburg, June 3rd 2008

Date for towing free of the “Norfolk Express”

Following further scrutiny of the situation on the spot and initial preparations, we assume that the "Norfolk Express", which ran aground in the Gulf of Suez on 30 May, will be towed free until 16 June.

The cargo has sustained no damage whatever and all reefers are functioning normally.